FACTORS IN CONSIDERING NOMINEES FOR "CITIZEN OF THE YEAR"

- For Moorestown Citizen of the Year, the Council recognizes that service activities are not geographically limited to Moorestown. For recognition, Nominees must be or have been a citizen of the township.
- Community service through individual volunteer effort and/or participation in group activities, unrelated to nominee's employment.
- Contributions through public service (elective or appointed positions at the local, county, state or federal levels).
- Multiple and varied volunteer efforts, including services which help bring our community and its citizens closer together.
- Honors, awards and citations which bring recognition to the nominee for his or her contributions.
